TAP. Matt Davenport's powerhouse show celebrates the artistry of dance from around the globe. With dazzling costumes and a soaring orchestral score, a cast of eight award-winning dancers and two singers travel over decades of styles, from Broadway and big band to world music and pop/rock. Included in this extravaganza are recreations of favorite Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly numbers, Broadway show-stoppers, smooth and sultry soft shoe, flamenco and Irish step. One night only tickets will be sold in the front lobby. Students 18 and under are free. More information: Barbara Nielsen, 248-5732.

It's 1942 and the luxurious Palm Beach Royale Hotel is under siege as two of Hollywood's biggest divas vie for the same suite. Mistaken identities, overblown egos, double entendres, and one pampered little lap dog round out this fall-down-laughing riot of a comedy. An all-out love note to those wonderful farces of the '30s and '40s.

Five years ago, the nine-member Walker family and their chocolate lab left their Alaska home aboard an RV to travel across the country to share their love of family and music. The parents, Brett and Apryll, their four redheaded daughter and three young sons, will bring a variety of instruments and musical styles that cover country, bluegrass, Irish and gospel to entertain all ages. Nominated for Best Family Show, they have performed hundreds of shows and are in great demand. One night only tickets will be sold in the front lobby. Students 18 and under are free. More information: Barbara Nielsen, 248-5732.
