A Countryside's Past
Mystery Tour
Discover the most intriguing things on this self-guided driving tour. Free. Tours began in 1964 by the Allegheny Mountains Convention & Visitors Bureau to share with Blair County residents the many hidden treasures in their own back yard. Today the tours still offer residents, as well as visitors, a peek at The Alleghenies from a perspective off the beaten path. The mystery is that you don't know where you'll go until the day the tour directions are released. Pick up your packet at the Blair County Convention Center in Altoona, between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.
